What on Earth Is Heaven Like? Nov 12 2020 This book examines what the Bible says about Jerusalem's future. Someday it will lift heaven on earth. "Janet has brought together the heart of one passionate for truth, the skill of an able student of the Word and hand of an artist. Janet has collated the Scriptures into a systematic theology about the future City of God: the New Jerusalem. Her work is thorough without being overly technical, making it accessible to anyone who wants to be a better student or teacher. She has done the church a wonderful service." Dr. David L. Burggraff, Ph.D. Professor of Theology Shepherds Theological Seminary, Cary, NC

Enoch, What Does Heaven Look Like?: Enoch's Revelation of God's Creation Jul 21 2021 This book "Enoch, What Does Heaven Look Like?" is the story of Enoch's amazing journey into the heavens, where he meets with specific angels that lead him on a trip through various dimensions of the heavens, and eventually to the Throne of God. This book is meant to give the reader a general description of what heaven looks like from the perspective of the man who walked with God named Enoch; the great-grandfather of Noah (Genesis 5:22-29). For the Bible says (Genesis 5:24) that Enoch "walked with God: and he was not; for God took him." Enoch is listed in the Bible and the Apocryphal works. While Enoch is in heaven he receives revelation from God and the archangels about the first seven days of God's creation of the universe; and the mysteries of the wonders of the various heavens while he visits there. This story of Enoch's adventure is an adaptation taken from the Holy Bible, and the book of Enoch, and is written in three parts. The first part of the book is based on an adaptation of the Bible's book of Genesis, and is written from the perspective of Enoch's description of the revelation he got from the Lord, regarding the first seven days of God's Genesis of creation. The second part of this book is meant to give a description of what heaven looks like, and is an adaptation based on the "Book of Enoch" and the revelation that Enoch received from the Lord God, as the archangels lead Enoch through the various dimensions of the heavens showing him the wonders that exist there. The third part of this book described in the last two chapters is an adaptation from the Bible and the "Book of Enoch" regarding the revelation that Enoch receives about the Throne of the God, and the revelation of Jesus the Christ, the Son of God, the Son of Man. This book is not the original "Book of Enoch" letter by letter, but is an adaptation taken from the "Book of Enoch" and the Holy Bible. It is written in story form and is also a form of poetry; and is not meant to be considered the cannon of Holy Scripture.

Faith Like a Dog Dec 14 2020 What is faith? What does true faith look like? Many people profess to have faith in God. It's true, but it comes much easier to some people than it does for others. But what does genuine faith truly look like? The Bible tells us that putting our full confidence in the things we hope for, it means being certain of things we cannot see. Is that even possible? Of faith God wants us to have in Him. He wants us to trust our entire existence to Him. Every need, every want, every desire, we trust that He will provide for us. He doesn't say He will give us whatever we ask for; He says He will provide for our needs as those who trust in Him. Can we really trust God for our every need? It's hard to imagine what that type of faith might look like for us, but many of us have perfect examples of that type of faith living in our homes—our pets, more specifically our dogs! Obviously, our children rely on us to provide for them, but as they grow, they become less dependent on us as parents. Dogs, however, are completely dependent on us from the time we bring them home to the day they die...they count on us to provide for their every need. They have complete faith in us to provide for them no matter what they need from food to hygiene to companionship and love; they have complete faith and trust that we will provide for them, that we won't let them down. That's the kind of faith God wants us to have in Him. Isn't that what true faith looks like? If we claim to be believers, isn't that what our faith in God should look like? Shouldn't we have complete faith that God will meet our every need no matter how big or how small? Faith that demonstrates an unwavering trust will never let us down...shouldn't we have faith like a dog?

Echoing Hope Jul 09 2020 Where is Jesus when we need him most? An influential pastor shares how despair can lead us to a deeper hope and a deeper relationship with God, helping us emerge stronger and more joyful from times of crisis. "May this careful study of the context of Jesus's life open up avenues of discovery and healing."—Mindy Caliguire, cofounder and president of Soul Care Institute. Experience difficulties and hardships. But how can we learn to live richly in the midst of them? And even grow spiritually because of them? The answer is found in the hopeful humanity of Jesus. As the Son of God, Jesus wasn't exempt from suffering, disappointment, and pain. He lived in the real world as a real person. He wept for those he loved. He felt hunger and thirst. He endured temptation, betrayal, and ridicule. He died after being unjustly tortured. And somehow through it all, he embodied hope—by defeating death and opening up a new way of life for us. In Echoing Hope, influential pastor and blogger Kurt Willems reveals how understanding the humanity of Jesus can transform our identity and empower us to step into our pain-filled world in a new way. Combining rich theological insight with practical stories and practices for response, he shows how we can overcome despair and encounter the beautiful potential of our lives.

Revelation Jul 01 2022 The final book of the Bible, Revelation prophesies the ultimate judgement of mankind in a series of allegorical visions, grisly images and numerological predictions. Because Nothing Looks Like God May 07 2020 Mixing sparks of curiosity and spiritual imagination, creatively shows how God is present every day, in every way. A vibrant invitation to children and their adults to explore--together--what, where, and how God is in the world.

What Does God Look Like Sep 10 2020 Children (and adults) often wonder and ask, "What does God look like?" And though 1 John 3:9 reminds us "No one has seen God at any time," that same scripture goes on to provide an answer of some sort, "...if we love one another, God abides in us, and His love is perfected in us." This book is meant to help answer that big question. It demonstrates how actions can show His love. Through colorful illustrations of a young boy's everyday adventures, Mama helps him discover what God looks like, in both big and small ways, if he'll only look with his heart.

What Does God Look Like? Apr 05 2020 Have you ever wondered what God looks like? Join a curious boy on his quest. He finds some clues in the Bible book of Exodus where Moses asks God to reveal Himself. Maybe we can catch a glimpse of God through his eyes.

"The Kingdom of God is Within You" Oct 31 2019 The Kingdom of God Is Within You, is a non-fiction book written by Leo Tolstoy. A philosophical treatise, the book was first published in Germany in 1894 after being banned in his home country of Russia. It is the culmination of thirty years of Tolstoy's thinking, and lays out a new organization for society based on a literal Christian interpretation of the Kingdom of God is Within You is a key text for Tolstoyan, nonviolent resistance, and Christian anarchist movements.

What Did Jesus Look Like? Nov 05 2022 Jesus Christ is arguably the most famous man who ever lived. His image adorns countless churches, icons, and paintings. He is the subject of millions of statues, sculptures, devotional objects and works of art. Every child can conjure an image of Jesus: usually as a handsome, white man with flowing locks and pristine linen robes. But what did Jesus really look like? Is our popular image of Jesus overly westernized and untrue to historical reality? This question continues to fascinate. In this Christian Origins scholar Joan E. Taylor surveys the historical evidence, and the prevalent image of Jesus in art and culture, to present an entirely different vision of this most famous of men. He may even have had short hair.

The Knowledge of the Holy Feb 22 2021 A leading American evangelical argues that our understanding of God's nature has become debased, and that modern Christianity needs to rediscover its concept of the holy and its sense of religious awe. Aimed at the general reader.

Drawing God Jun 07 2020 Drawing God is the story of a young girl named Emma, who is inspired to draw like Picasso after a visit to the art museum. Emma wants to draw something beyond spectacular and decides to draw God. She is quick to share her masterpiece with her best friend at school, but he can't see God in her drawing. Emma tries again and again, and none of her classmates can see God in her drawings. Finally, Emma realizes that she doesn't need their approval. But soon after, she also realizes the power of her contentment and inspiration, when she returns to school to find everyone drawing God -- and every picture is different.

What Does God Look Like? Feb 25 2022 When a little boy asks his mother about what God looks like-and many other questions she answers him with lots of details. This story began when author Linda Wilson's three daughters were young. This story was illustrated in response to their questions and the questions of many other children through the years about God. Children yearn for a literal, touchable truth about all things, including the unseen God of the universe. Understanding that truth is quite a task for children in their formative years. Their eager and open minds deserve good answers to their good questions. What Does God Look Like? helps each child know who God is and how much He loves and cares about each of them; - relieve any fears or misconceptions about God and reveal a biblical, pleasant picture of heaven for them; and - reinforce the teaching that God is not only our Lord and Savior but also our comforter, teacher, and everlasting Father. What Does God Look Like? encourages each child to see God's reflection in his or her life and to make an indelible impression on them that they are made in God's image.

What Is God Like? Nov 24 2021 #1 NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLER • The late, beloved Rachel Held Evans answers many children's first question about God in this gorgeous picture book, fully realized by her friend Matthew Paul Turner, the bestselling author of God Made You. Children who are introduced to God, through attending church or having loved ones who speak about God, often have a lot of questions, including this ever-popular one: What is God like? The late Rachel Held Evans loved the Bible and loved showing her love through the words and pictures found in that ancient text. Through these pictures from the Bible, children see that God is like a shepherd, God is like a star, God is like a gardener, God is like the wind, and more. God is a comforter and support. And when you are unsure, What Is God Like? encourages young hearts to "think about what makes you feel safe, what makes you feel loved, what makes you feel brave. That's what God is like."

What Does God Look Like? Dec 26 2021 God is everywhere. He's in the clear blue skies. He's in the sun and the snowflakes. He's in the words we say, and in our hearts, and when we pray. He's in the things we do all day. Written for author Kimberly Simmons' 10-year-old grandchild, What Does God Look Like? explains the many places she sees God's gifts, especially in her children and grandchildren. This rhyming picture book for little ones, it offers a heartfelt expression of God's grace within everyday encounters.

The Gift of Prophecy in the New Testament and Today (Revised Edition) Oct 12 2020 What does the New Testament teach about the spiritual gift of prophecy? What is it? How does it function? Can evangelical Christians use it in their churches today? This unique and comprehensive work answers such questions and points the way to a renewed understanding of the gift of prophecy--an understanding that suggests how the body of Christ may enjoy one of the Holy Spirit's most edifying gifts without compromising the supremacy of Christ. "This conservative evangelical scholarly work gives a solid theological basis for further development of a practical theology of prophecy." --John Wimber, Vineyard Christian Fellowship "Careful, thorough, wise, and to my mind, convincing." --J.I. Packer "...a fresh and biblically sound, readable contribution...its depth of scholarship, pastoral solidity, and cautions against abuses are special strengths." Highly recommended." --Vern S. Poythress, Professor of New Testament Interpretation, Westminster Theological Seminary "If you have a convincing thesis could be heard, a new path of dialog could perhaps be opened up in the Christian community. The research is thorough and typical Grudem candor continue to make this the finest book on the subject to date." --L. Russ Bush, Professor of Philosophy, Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary "...thorough, biblical, and practical. It deserves the attention of all who are concerned about the spiritual development of the church today." --Stanley Horton, Distinguished Professor Emeritus of Bible and Theology, Assumption Theological Seminary

God Who Looks Like Me May 19 2021 "A wonderfully unique resource for women who are continually searching for new insights into the area of woman-affirming faith and worship." --Reverend Sharon Vandegrift United Methodist Chaplain Drexel University Children often see religious images of judgment, punishment, unworthiness, and shame, of male saviors, messiahs, and Higher Powers, pursue them into adulthood. Many women realize they must leave behind these traditional concepts and images for a more authentic spirituality. But when they find, to their dismay, that the male symbols of God are deeply rooted in their psyches and difficult to transform. In this book, the personal memories of women of all ages and lifestyles are interwoven with the collective story of women buried in the Hebrew Bible and the Christian Bible. Together, these women explore the lost glory of Eve, Lilith, and Mary. They teach us to plumb the depths of our relationships with our mothers, our bodies, and ourselves; our sexuality and vulnerability; and our journey into old age. Each chapter offers a rich tapestry of poetry, ritual, story, and meditation, a splendid invitation to join a circle of women in search of woman-centered spirituality. "Patricia Lynn Reilly guides her readers towards solutions. . . . This book is an excellent map filled to overflowing with provocative exercises and concrete suggestions." --Gloria Karpinski Author of Where Two Worlds Touch: Spiritual Rites of Passage "This book beautifully combines the best of the poignant with the best of the practical and the political." --Publishers Weekly
